GO GUIDE

SURF THE NEW YEAR: ITINERARY

DAY 1 - MARRAKECH

23rd Dec. Welcome to Morocco! Arrival transfer from Marrakech airport to the hotel. Be sure to arrive in time for your pre-departure meeting at 7pm. Overnight - Marrakech.

DAY 2 - DADES GORGE

Marrakech - Dades Gorge - breakfast. Leaving Marrakech, we drive through the Dades Gorge, an awesome valley which extends from the High Atlas to the Jebel Sarhro range in the south. Berbers built many kasbahs in the vicinity of gorges for defence purposes. These many kasbahs combined with the stunning natural setting, makes this a beautiful region through which to travel. Lunch, dinner and overnight - Dades Gorge.

DAY 3 - XMAS IN TODRA GORGE

Dades Gorge - Todra Gorge - breakfast. Merry Christmas! This morning you can choose to trek Dades Gorge or just relax. Afterwards, travel to Todra Gorge and witness it's changing colours as the sun slowly moves from east to west. Opt to go rock climbing. Lunch, Xmas dinner and overnight - Todra Gorge

DAY 4 - BERBER CAMP

Todra Gorge - Erg Chebbi - breakfast. Crossing Jebel Sarhro, we enjoy lunch and a swim before travelling down to Erg Chebbi sand dunes, the start point of the mighty Sahara Desert. The Erg Chebbi dunes located near the remote frontier town of Merzouga are renowned for their incredible height and size. In parts the vast sand pile reaches skyward to heights of 150 metres!

The desert winds ensure this astonishing landscape is forever changing and no two days offer the same panorama. Mounting our subservient camels, they relaxedly glide across the desert sands as we happily photograph and take in the breathtaking scenery. Arriving at our simple Berber camp, we enjoy dinner and a night under the Saharan stars. Lunch, dinner and overnight - Berber camp.

DAY 5 - ROUTE OF 1000 KASBAHS

Erg Chebbi - Ouarzazate - breakfast. After a stunning sunrise and a tranquil ambient ride back to our frontier post (camel HQ) there is time to freshen up before driving to the verdant Draa valley. Besides the natural, historical and architectural wonders that the Draa Valley offers, there are also small villages along the valley where time seems to stand still, so little is the effect of modernity on them. Here, women are fully and always veiled while washing their clothes on the riverbanks and the watchful men seem distant, unaccustomed to foreign visitors.

Along the route of 1000 Kasbahs, we continue on to Ouarzazate, (pronounced as wazza-zat). Sitting at an altitude of 1160 metres in the middle of a barren plateau, Ouarzazate lies at the cross roads of all routes going north, south, east, and west. Its geographical position has made it a key trading post in both ancient and modern times. Capital of a large province, the towns' northern limits run along the southern aspect of the High Atlas and its southern boundary disappears back into the ever present and mysterious saharan desert. Today, the area is still essentially populated by Berber people, who were constructors of the numerous fortified kasbahs and dwellings for which the region is famous. After hotel check in, consider a late afternoon swim. Lunch, dinner and overnight - Ouarzazate.

DAY 6 - AIT BENHADDOU

Ouarzazate - Ait Benhaddou - Marrakech - breakfast. This morning there is the option to visit the film studio or go quad biking (both payable locally). Then we head to Ait Benhaddou, a 'fortified city', situated along the former caravan route between the Sahara and Marrakech. It is situated on a hill along the Ouarzazate River and boasts some beautiful examples of kasbahs, some of which remain inhabited. Granted UNESCO World Heritage listing, the site is stunningly well preserved medieval city and a true highlight of our tour. Late afternoon we head back to Marrakech. Overnight - Marrakech

DAY 7 - DJEMAA EL FNA

Marrakech - breakfast. Glowing red, like a welcoming campfire, against the snow capped High Atlas Mountains, the very name Marrakech conjures up images of an exotic, distant city, of magic carpets and snake charmers and of frankincense and myrrh brought in by camel trains.

Set within the rose-coloured walls of the medina lies a reality that is not that far removed from an exotic film set - a tangle of winding streets that open onto verdant gardens and dark alleyways that lead to bustling souks. The focal point is the central square, the Djemaa el Fna, an extraordinary gathering and market place. Full of colour, spicy aromas and traders it is best seen in the evening when overflowing with food stalls, dancers, acrobats, fortune tellers, musicians and henna artists. Towering over all this is the Koutoubia mosque, the tallest building in the city. Enjoy a guided tour of Marrakech in the morning with free time after lunch. Perhaps test your bartering skills, buying souvenirs in the souks! Dinner and overnight - Marrakech.

DAYS 8 & 9 - BEACHSIDE ESSAOUIRA

Marrakech - Essaouira - breakfast. This morning we drive to Essaouira. With a laid-back feel Essaouira is Morocco's hippest coastal town. The windswept fishing port, broad beaches and ancient walled medina with ramparts built into the cliff have long been a favourite refuge for artists, sculptors, food lovers, surfers and backpackers. The medina surrounded by a fortress with 5 main gates you can navigate by, has retained its traditional styles and is laden with quirky shops, coffee houses, antiques, art studios, calligraphers, t-shirt designers and souvenir curios.

There's a relaxed feel to the place and shopping here is a real delight. Locals and visitors alike enjoy strolling along the ramparts as the sun sets. The port is a hive of activity with fishing boats hauling in their daily catch.

Opt for a swim in the Atlantic, though the water is a little cold this time of year, a game of football on the beach with the locals, an afternoon at the hammam, surfing, wind surfing or kite surfing (very cool to watch, even if you'd rather not participate yourself). The beach is also great for a stroll and since it runs for about 6 miles (10km) there's plenty of it. By nightfall sit back and relax at any one of the many al fresco cafes, pubs or bars serving cold beer and the freshest seafood. Free time to explore Marrakech, try a hammam and practice your bargaining skills in the souks. On New Year's Eve our group can go for dinner at one of the many lovely local restaurants. Overnight (2) Essaouira

DAY 10 - ESSAOUIRA TO MARRAKECH

Essaouira - breakfast. This afternoon we return to Marrakech. Overnight - Marrakech.

DAY 11 - TOUR ENDS IN MARRAKECH

Sunday 02 Jan 2011. Marrakech - Breakfast. Spend the morning relaxing or picking up a few last minute souvenirs. Our tour concludes upon hotel check out at 12 noon. We hope you have had a great festive holiday!

USEFUL INFORMATION

WHAT TO PACK We recommend you pack all your gear in a rucksack/backpack for this type of trip. Also bring a daypack, to keep personal items such as your wallet, camera, water bottle and valuables to hand.

SLEEPING BAG - You will need a sleeping bag for your night in the Berber camp

CLOTHING - Over Xmas & New Year Morocco is blessed mostly with warm sunny days and clear blue skies. Temperatures do drop as the sun goes down it can be particularly cold in the desert and high up in the Atlas Mountains. It's a good idea to pack long sleeve shirts and pants for daytime and plenty of warm clothing including hat, gloves, scarf and a warm jacket for the evenings.

We recommend check the five day weather forecast online before packing to get an accurate idea of the temperature at each of the destinations you will be visiting.

WHAT TO BRING -

- Towel - most hotels do not provide them
- Torch and batteries
- Camera and spare memory card/film
- Mosquito repellent
- Water bottle
- Personal first aid kit
- Swimming costume/shorts for hammam
- Comfortable pair of trainers/walking shoes
- Two spare passport photos and a photocopy of your passport
